

The Village Painters General Meeting Minutes
August 2, 2017

The August general meeting of the Village Painters was held August 2 at the Livonia Senior Center. Following a trunk sale in the parking lot, 43 members and 2 guests enjoy a picnic dinner. President Sheri Redd opened the meeting at 7:00pm with a few remarks.

President: Sheri Redd thanked Susan Rhodes and committee of Pam Hypnar and Dawn Bileau for organizing the picnic. She reminded us of the raffles for tonight, and announced that the form for the Christmas Party was available. She presented the 2018 Chart for Board Positions. Volunteers are wanted and needed.

Treasurer: Kathy Fischer presented the January to August financial report.

Membership: Michelle Handley reported that the SDP dues process is still in transition but that all members need to pay their dues. And we have a new Member—Sue Hagen.

Education: Diane Stiller presented the next few seminars. Surfaces and patterns for Prudy Vannier's Egret were available. Michele updated us to her surface, prep, and embellishments for Sept.12 Diane requested registrations for Mary Wiseman's magnolia (Oct7)

The Paint With Us project was available for viewing, as well as the supply list. Nancy Silver is the teacher.

Diane wanted voting for the Holly Hanley projects. The projects were selected by a committee.

We are looking for an instructor for the tealight bunny rabbit by Lisa Schala. (Lisa does not travel teach.)

Ways and Means: Sandy Tyo and Darlene Greenwood held the regular raffle, and the special raffle. Winners were: Doreen McLain for the Basket of supplies. Sandy Tyo for the Artist Table, and Pam Miller for the assortment of paints and DVDs.

Peggy Mack's Raffle winners were: Sam Farah, Loretta Heubler, Sandy Tyo, and Pam Miller.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:50pm.

Respectfully submitted by Joan Mueller